In 2012 Dominica, saw growth in all visitor types with the exception of cruise.

STAY OVER ARRIVALS

Following a 1.3% decline in stay over visitor arrivals in 2011 (75,546), from 76,518 in 2010, the 4.5% growth experienced in 2012 was welcomed. The 78,965 stay over arrivals recorded has surpassed visitor numbers seen over the last 3 years.

The strongest source market in 2012 was the French West Indies which grew 6.9% to a record 23,011, with arrivals from both Martinique (7,002) and Guadeloupe (16,009) surpassing previous recorded highs. With steady performance and growth within all the key sub regions - France, United Kingdom, the German-Speaking Market, and Scandinavia - overall arrivals from Europe grew 11.1% to 12,816.

And following slow arrivals in the 1st and 3rd quarters of 2012, a tremendous increase in December - 421 (compared to 298 in 2011) - helped propel a 2.6% growth in Canadian arrivals to 3,063 from 2,986. In 2012, an 8.3% growth in US non-student arrivals to 14,954, coupled with a small growth in arrivals for study (0.7%), was the main contributor to end of year arrivals of 19,002, which is 6.6% over 2011.

Visits for vacation (51,956) in 2012 grew 10.2% and were 65.8% total stay over arrivals. Despite an 10.1% decline in arrivals for Business and Meetings in 2012 (8,009), this purpose of visit still accounted for 10.1% of arrivals. Student arrivals were 6.1% of total visitation in 2012, 2.0% increase from the previous year. The number of persons indicating the World Creole Music Festival as their primary reason for visiting Dominica was 4% (3,113) of total arrivals in 2012, Carnival recorded at just under 2% but this may have been understated.

Traditional holiday accommodations, like hotels and guest houses, were the place of stay for 34.5% of visitors into Dominica in 2012 and grew 9.7% from 2011.

In 2013, marketing and product development activities will continue with the aim of growing niche and general leisure travel from these key source markets as well as others. Some efforts which have already begun include dialogue on improving access and connectivity, engagement of travel professionals and travelling public by participation at travel shows, revitalizing our digital marketing strategy, facilitating positive press coverage in major publication, and organizing training programmes and familiarization trips for travel agents and tour operators.

CRUISE

An overall reduction in monthly calls and lack of cruise vessels calling to Dominica between May 2012 and September 2012 has resulted in an 22.1% decline in passengers to 266,178 and a 6.6% decline in calls to 196. Moving forward the focus is improving guest experience and promoting the unique natural attributes that make Dominica a different port of call, as well as highlighting how the ongoing infrastructural developments benefit the cruise line and improve visitor experience

EXCURSIONISTS

The growth in the same day market was a direct result of the Carnival and Summer Excursions by L'Express Des Iles. With numbers surpassing 2,000, we can see there is great potential. Repeating these excursions in 2013 along programmes targeted at these excursionists will definitely benefit not only the same day market but potentially cause future returns for stay over visits

YACHTING

Overall, it was positive year for the yachting sector, and in 2012 we saw many more vessels clearing customs in Roseau than in years past, there was a 33.5% increase in passengers and crew arrivals (4,207) and 35.7% increase in vessels (1,117).

Despite a 1.1% decline in the number of vessels clearing customs at Portsmouth (1,757) in 2012, we still saw a 5.1% increase in passengers and crew arriving (7,556).
